70 YEARS AGO

IS IT TIME FOR ANOTHER WAR?

WAR LORDS AND THEIR PLANS OF WAR

IN

THE MIDDLE EAST

War is a “terrible thing,” said Sen. Lindsay Graham, Republican from South Carolina, but sometimes it is better to go to war than to allow the Holocaust to develop a second time.” Graham then describes the war Americans should fight if military force is ever employed, it should be done in a decisive fashion. The Iranian government’s ability to wage conventional war against its neighbors and our troops in the region should not exist. They should not have one plane that can fly or one ship that can float.” Senator Graham: “if we are going to start this war, prudence dictates that we destroy Iran’s ability to fight back. At a minimum, we would have to use airstrikes and cruise missiles to hit a range of targets the veteran senator says the US should not be satisfied with stopping Iran's nuclear program but should also destroy its military capabilities and deliver a major blow to the Islamic Revolution Guards Corps. Influential Republican Senator Lindsey Graham of South Carolina, known for his radical militaristic views and support for the Israeli regime said, “My view of military force would be not to just neutralize their nuclear program, which are probably dispersed and hardened, but to sink their navy.”

A SECRET MACHIAVELLIAN DANCE OF DECEPTION

To believe that the multifarious love affair between the United States and Israel is a noble ideal and a mutually benevolent affair designed and choreographed to assist a tiny democratic country surrounded by hostile enemies on all sides is tantamount believing in the tooth fairy. Their mutual goals and ambitions in the Middle East are much grander and greater than this often stated policy

Who are these men who travel to the far ends of the earth to meet in secret rooms and conceive and execute special and far reaching agendas in concealed documents which in due course will affect the lives, fortunes and destiny of millions of global citizens, their families and their children? Regardless of what Nation issued their passports: They remain Internationalists. Are they the new international order of political hierarchies that have taken captive the executive command structures of our democratically selected political world? Are they those that say one thing in public while planning to reintroduce another completely different set of political, religious, and social disciplines in private, while fallaciously advocating superlative promises of democracy, freedom, liberty and justice to the nations and peoples of the world? If so, they may be a morphogenetic breed of men and ideas from those that we have previously described as secret societies. Only they know who they are and what their plans are for the nations and the peoples of the world; but by necessity they must manifest themselves and their political agendas by their covert use of illegal programs of military, social and political operations around the world. These men and their governments have gained total and complete political power by infiltrating and corrupting the noble ideals of the early Greek philosophical concept of Democracy. Their cracking of whips and machine guns has become nuclear weapons of mass destruction. They control the entire world's nuclear military power in our skies, in our oceans, and soon in outer space. They do all this with the consent and the approval of ordinary citizens by way of public democratic elections

In late March 1961, David Ben-Gurion decided to arrange a meeting with President John F. Kennedy. After conquering scheduling problems the two leaders agreed to meet privately at New York's Waldorf Astoria Hotel, on May 30, 1961. This meeting was the real purpose behind Ben-Gurion's trip to Canada. According to his biographer, the Israeli Prime Minister was very tense fearing that Kennedy's stiff position on the matter of Israel's planned nuclear reactor program would severely jeopardize their relationship. An aura of suspicion and mistrust had hardened and damaged the international relations between Israel and The United States ever since the discovery that Israel was actively pursuing a Program of Nuclear Development in Dimona, Israel, that had not received the approval of the United States Government from President John Fitzgerald Kennedy. Ben-Gurion told the President that Israel would pursue their existing plans for the development of a Nuclear Weapon Program with or without receiving the approval of the United States Government. As the meeting came to an end, President Kennedy said defiantly: The only way Israel will receive approval for their nuclear program from the USA is over my dead body!

THE UNBRIDLED EXPANSION OF NUCLEAR, CHEMICAL AND BIOLOGICAL WEAPONS

Some powers proudly announce their production of second and third generations of nuclear weapons. What do they need these weapons for? Is the development and stockpiling of these deadly weapons designed to promote peace and democracy? Or, are these weapons, in fact, instruments of coercion and a threat against other peoples and governments? How long should the people of the world live with the nightmare of nuclear, biological and chemical weapons?

What bounds the powers producing and possessing these weapons? How can they be held accountable before the international community? And, are the inhabitants of these countries content with the waste of their wealth and resources for the production of such destructive arsenals? Is it not possible to rely on justice, ethics and wisdom instead of these instruments of death? Aren't wisdom and justice more compatible with peace and tranquility than nuclear, chemical and biological weapons? If wisdom, ethics and justice prevail, then oppression and aggression will be uprooted, threats will wither away and no reason will remain for conflict. This is a solid proposition because most global conflicts emanate from injustice, and from the powerful, not being contented with their own rights, striving to devour the rights of others.

People across the globe embrace justice and are willing to sacrifice for its sake. Would it not be easier for global powers to ensure their longevity and win hearts and minds through the championing of real promotion of justice, compassion and peace, than through continuing the proliferation of nuclear and chemical weapons and the threat of their use? The experience of the threat and the use of nuclear weapons are before us. Has it achieved anything for the perpetrators other than exacerbation of tension, hatred and animosity among nations? Some powers proudly announce their production of second and third generations of Nuclear Weapons. Why do they need these weapons? Is the development and stockpiling of these deadly weapons designed to promote peace and democracy, or, are these weapons, in fact, instruments of coercion and threat against other Nations and their governments?

All wars fought in the names of democracy, liberty, and freedom are wars of aggression and acquiring most of the world's riches, whether in the ground, in the oceans, in the skies, or soon in outer space.

When they want a war they will have a war no matter how many People will have to die as a result of their malevolent ambitions.

More recent wars were the projected results of a corrupt world-wide fraudulent exploitation of the ancient noble Greek concept of a Democracy. Thousands of lives have been lost and extremely rare properties destroyed in these numerous wars that have put in place foreign inspired political regimes in countries that found themselves in the bombsite crosshairs of present-day powerful western nations and their allies.

By causing war and conflict, some are fast expanding their domination, accumulating greater wealth and usurping all the resources, while others endure the resulting poverty, suffering and misery. Some seek to rule the world relying on weapons and threats, while others live in perpetual insecurity and danger. Some occupy the homeland of others, thousands of kilometers away from their borders, interfere in their affairs and control their oil and other resources and strategic routes, while others are bombarded daily in their own homes; their children murdered in the streets and alleys of their own country and their homes reduced to rubble. Such behavior is not worthy of human beings and runs counter to the truth, to justice and to human dignity. The fundamental question is that under such conditions, where should the oppressed seek justice? Who or what organization defends the rights of the oppressed, and suppresses acts of aggression and oppression?

CONSIDER THE SITUATION IN PALESTINE

Palestinian Refugee Camps

The roots of the Palestinian problem go back to the Second World War. Under the pretext of protecting some of the survivors of that War, the land of Palestine was occupied through war, aggression and the displacement of millions of its inhabitants; it was placed under the control of some of the war survivors, bringing even larger population groups from elsewhere in the world, who had not been even affected by the Second World War; and a government was established in the territory of others with a population collected from across the world at the expense of driving millions of the rightful inhabitants of the land into a Diaspora and homelessness. This is a great Tragedy with hardly a precedent in history. Refugees continue to live in temporary refugee camps, and many have died still hoping to one day return to their land. Can any logic, law or legal reasoning justify this tragedy? Can any member of the United Nations accept such a tragedy occurring in their own homeland? The pretexts for the creation of the regime occupying Al-Qods Al-Sharif are so weak that its proponents want to silence any voice trying to merely speak about them, as they are concerned that shedding light on the facts would undermine the raison d'être of this regime, as it has. The tragedy does not end with the establishment of a regime in the territory of others. Regrettably, from its inception, that regime has been a constant source of threat and insecurity in the Middle East region, waging war and spilling blood and impeding the progress of regional countries, and has also been used by some powers as an instrument of division, coercion, and pressure on the people of the region. Reference to these historical realities may cause some disquiet among supporters of this regime. But these are sheer facts and not myth

The Zionists have no right of any sovereignty over even one inch of the Holy Land. They do not represent the Jewish people in any way whatsoever. They have no right to speak in the name of the Jewish people. Therefore, their words, declarations and actions are not in any way representative of the Jewish people. This is because the Zionists' seizing of power over the Holy Land is antithetical to Jewish law, and also because the Zionists do not behave like Jews at all rather, they desecrate the sanctity of the land Lately, the question has once again arisen concerning the Temple Mount and sovereignty over it. Thus, we wish to state unequivocally: a) in our time, it is a severe Torah prohibition for any Jew to set foot on any part of the Temple Mount area. b) The Jewish people have no claim whatsoever to sovereignty over this holy site, which is under Islamic authority, nor over any other holy site. Rabbi Zonenfeld was once asked, "Is it true, that the Rabbi prefers a non-Jewish government over all of the Holy Land"? Rabbi Zonenfeld replied, "If King Hussein would rule over Palestine, the holiness of the Holy Land would not be diminished to even to an Iota degree". We yearningly wait G-d's great day, when He will return His Divine Presence to Zion, restoring the holy city to its former holiness and glory as in days of old, to be a light to the American- Zionist State given over to a goal of global political influence and economic power and domination.

Upon closer inspection it will be seen that the State and the Governments of Israel are not Judaic nor does the State follow and believe in and observe the ancient beliefs and practices of Judaic Law. Israel is a secular state. It is a modern Anglo-American- Zionist State given over to a goal of global political influence and economic power and domination. The State of Israel is their beachhead to the entire Middle East.

On 29th October 1956, the Israeli Army invaded Egypt. Two days later, British and French military Air Forces bombed Egyptian airfields. British and French troops landed at Port Said at the northern end of the Suez Canal on 5th November. By this time the Israelis had captured the Sinai Peninsula.

The size and content of Israel's annual annuity aid program remain unstated for unclear reasons. It has been estimated to be in the multibillion dollar range of economic and military assistance and appropriations. Clearly an annual drain on the American budget still not properly understood and recognized by taxpaying American citizens who every four years elect a national government to protect and guide their nation.

A REIGN OF TERROR

May 14, 1948 – March 20, 2015

The elaborate and highly secretive preparations which went into the Zionist plan of forming and creating a State of Israel, located in what was then Palestine, became a reality on November 2, 1917, when Lord James Arthur Balfour stood before the British Parliament and announced that he had sent a letter to Lord Lionel Walter Rothschild, Chairman of The Zionist Federation, informing Lord Rothschild that his cabinet and His Majesty's Government "view with favor the establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people, and will use their best endeavors to facilitate the achievement of this object, it clearly being understood that nothing shall be done which may prejudice the civil and religious rights of existing non-Jewish communities in Palestine."

The Six-Day War, took place June 5–10, 1967, and was the third of the Arab-Israeli wars. Israel's decisive victory included the capture of the Sinai Peninsula, Gaza Strip, West Bank, Old City of Jerusalem, and the Golan Heights; the status of these territories subsequently became a major point of contention in the Arab-Israeli conflict.

Prior to the start of the war, attacks conducted against Israel by fledgling Palestinian guerrilla groups based in Syria, Lebanon, and Jordan had increased, leading to costly Israeli reprisals. In November 1966 an Israeli strike on the village of Al-Samū in the Jordanian West Bank left 18 dead and 54 wounded, and, during an air battle with Syria in April 1967, the Israeli Air Force shot down six Syrian MiG fighter jets. In addition, Soviet intelligence reports in May indicated that Israel was planning a punitive military campaign against Syria, and, although inaccurate, the information further heightened tensions between Israel and its Arab neighbors.

The 2014 Israel–Gaza conflict, 2014 Gaza massacre was a military operation launched by Israel on 8 July 2014 in the Hamas-ruled Gaza Strip Thereafter, seven weeks of Israeli bombardment, Palestinian rocket attacks, and ground fighting resulted in the deaths of over 2,200 people, the vast majority of them Gazans.

JERUSALEM

The status of Jerusalem remains one of the core issues in the Israeli–Palestinian conflict. During the 1948 Arab–Israeli War, West Jerusalem was among the areas captured and later annexed by Israel while East Jerusalem, including the Old City, was captured and later annexed by Jordan. Israel captured East Jerusalem from Jordan during the 1967 Six-Day War and subsequently annexed it. Israel's 1980 Basic Law the Jerusalem Law refers to Jerusalem as the country's undivided capital. The international community rejected the annexation as illegal and treats East Jerusalem as Palestinian territory occupied by Israel. The international community does not recognize Jerusalem as Israel's capital, and the city hosts no foreign embassies.

THE 1948 PALESTINIAN EXODUS

Their Right of Return

The 1948 Palestinian exodus occurred when more than 700,000 Palestinian Arabs fled or were expelled from their homes during the 1948 Palestine war..The causes are a subject of fundamental disagreement between Arabs and Israelis.

The Mysteries of World War 11

1939 - 1945.

Why and how unknown millions (60 million +) of military and civilian citizens secretly and publicly met their death and why and how several of the world's great nations and their historic cities and ancient religious institutes were invaded with a agenda of military aerial and land assaults intent on a goal of virtual obliteration.

Sir Winston Churchill then a member of that 1917 Parliament played his now familiar factotum role. He was later quoted as saying —I am a Zionist, let me make that clear. I was one of the original ones for it. after the Balfour Declaration and I have worked faithfully
